Mayor Report: Spoke of importance of state's "sunshine" laws for city residents to have full transparency into government as intended. Taking steps to further illuminate & ensure accurate coverage, including posting of agendas to be visible outside City Hall near front utility drop box window and posting video of meetings to Facebook for now and/or website once it's re-established. She stressed it's necessary that the public has improved access to a true representation of our government in 2023.

Clerk/Administrator Report: Need guidance on purchase prices for available lots to offer for sale. Budgets should be turned in.

Supt of Utilities Report: Extensive snow removal & equipment repair. Shared how prices are much higher & lead times much longer for almost all equipment/supplies. Best to plan & order way ahead when possible.

Police Dept: Chief Bremer was called out. Fire Dept: Chief Harper update & annual report highlights.

Ambulance: No report. Library: No report.

Heeren motioned to adjourn. Murphy seconded. All Ayes. Motion Carried. Meeting adjourned at 7:27 p.m.

Brenda Ebel Kruse, Mayor
